My favorite season of the year is Summer. It is because school is out and you dont have to worry about many things. Its like taking a heavy load off of your shoulders.

Also you just feel free and can do whatever you want. The Sun is out and you can go outside and swim or play and have a blast. Those are the reasons I like Summer.

Organization/Purpose: Score 1

- The controlling idea is present but very brief.
- The writer uses few transitional devices: “also” is used once.
- The introductory and concluding sentences are overly general.

Evidence/Elaboration: Score 1

- The response provides minimal support for the idea that summer is relaxing.
- Almost no elaborative techniques are used: one or two details (“swim,” “play”) are provided but not developed.
- The style is non-descript, generic.

Conventions: Score 1

- Incorrect sentence formation: shifts in viewpoints (“you”); vague pronouns (“It”).
- Errors in comma use, capitalization, apostrophes
